Appointment of Additional Subjudges under the Civil Courts Regulation

FROM

The Registrar, High Court

Roc No. 854 Dated 18-12-28 Received 22-12-28

Diary No. 2732	Enclos. 5	Spare copies	Serial No. 1

BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

States that the work in the Dt and Sessions courts in all the 3 Divisions is on the increase and the judges propose to give them some relief in respect of civil work by transferring some of their appeals to certain Special magistrates and the Small Cause court judge Bangalore and requests that these Special magistrates and the Small Cause judge be appointed as Additional Subjudges.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

1) It is proposed to give relief to all District and Sessions judges, by appointing the Special Asst Commissioners at Kolar, Chitaldrug and Tumkur as Additional Subjudges as also the Small Cause judge Bangalore. Under section 9 of the Civil Procedure

Code. The Judges for the time being of Shimoga, Bangalore and Mysore Cantt be appointed as Assistant Sessions Judges. It is not clear whether the words Shimoga, Bangalore and Mysore do not refer to Divisions as Sessions Cases arising in the Dts comprising these respective Divisions other than Bl'ore, Mysore or Shimoga

These Additional Sub Judges do not become Asst Sessions Judges, unless they are also appointed as such & there is no intention so appointing them.

1) The Special First class Magistrates who are now proposed to be appointed as Additional Judges may therefore become Additional Assistant Sessions Judges and the appeals from their Sessions will then lie to the Chief Court. The parties therefore lose the right of one appeal.

This is not so, as note above:—

3) By transferring Civil work to these Magistrates, their work will increase and the staff will hence to be strengthened. The Chief Court have not mentioned anything about the staff. Additional cost will have to be incurred. The Chief Court may perhaps be enquired whether any additional staff is required and if so the probable cost. Submitted for orders

14 As regards draft II, an enquiry may perhaps be made as to whether the second additional subordinate judge proposed for the Bengalam Div. (viz. the Spl. Asst. to Magte at Kolar) might work in that capacity at Kolar, when Bengalam is no longer fixed, under s. 4(6) of the Civil Courts Regulation, as the place where the principal subordinate judge's court of the Division shall be held. An additional subordinate judge has to work at the place fixed for the principal subordinate judge's court & there is no provision either in the Civil Courts Regn of 1883 or in the amending Regulation of 1926 for fixing independently the place of work for an additional subordinate judge. The provision in s. 4 (6) of the Civil Courts Regn. for altering the venue applies only to the principal subordinate judge's court.

Stating that there may be different places for the principal and the additional Subordinate judges appointed for a Sub-Court and forwards Revised Draft notifns. 1 Encls. for orders. The question is not perhaps strictly free from doubt. For under S. 4 (4) Govt may fix the places for every Civil Court. The effect of the present proposal will be to fix two places for the same court. The two judges will be attached to the same court and they do not constitute different courts. Under 4 B one of the judges has to be appointed as the Principal judge and

See 4/2

The expression "all enactments" in Section 13 of the General Clauses Regulation of 1899 presumably includes also all prior enactments and it may be possible to take the word "place" in Section 4 (b) of the Civil Courts Regulation of 1883 to mean -- "places" as well. But this construction is permissible only if there is nothing repugnant to it in the subject or context in connection with which the word occurs and it is somewhat difficult to make out that there is no such repugnancy. Section 4 (b) of the Civil Courts Regulation reads as follows:-

"The place at which every such Civil Court shall be held shall be fixed and may, from time to time, be altered by the Government". The expression "every such court" can mean only every such Court as is referred to in sub-section (1) of the same section and so long as the number of Subordinate Judge's Courts fixed under this Sub Section is only one for each Division, the word "place" with reference to each such Court can be understood as being used in Sub-section (2) only in the singular number and not as including the plural. No other construction appears to be possible, especially when section 4 does not provide for the appointment of more than

WD 021—GPB—30,000—21-8-28

Serial No.

than one presiding Judge to a single Court nor even contemplate a single Judge holding his Court at more than one place. It is from Section 4 A, added after this Section by Regulation VII of 1926 that the power to appoint more than one Judge to a single Court is derived. But this Regulation does not confer any power, either explicity or even by necessary implication, to fix a place of work for an Additional Subordinate Judge independently of the Principal Subordinate Judges's Court to which he is attached. It seems therefore that Section 4 (b) cannot be construed in a sense different from what it admitted of before Regulation VII of 1926 was enacted.

In this view the appointment of the Special First Class Magistrates at Kolar, Hassan and Chitaldrug as Additional Subordinate Judges for the respective Divisions, as proposed, would not be in order unless the Civil Courts Regulation is further amended for the purpose. If relief to the existing Subordinate Judges is immediately necessary, the Magistrates referred to will have to be appointed as Subordinate Judges under Section 4 with separate territorial jurisdiction fixed under Section 5.

In any case, each Magistrate will have to be appointed as Subordinate Judge by name, not by virtue of his office as Magistrate as proposed in the draft Notifications sent by the Chief Court, unless the three posts of Special First Class Magistrates are intended to be reserved solely for officers of the Judicial Department.

1. No point has now been made clear by the Chief Court's letter, and there is nothing to prevent the Govt from requiring any additional sub-Jurge to hold his Court in and this place within the same division since one Court may have more than one Jurge under the Regn of 1926. I do not think there is any need to amend the Civil Courts Regn for this purpose. The draft notifications have been altered by the Chief Court suitably, and I think they may be approved.

Registrar, Chief Court of Mysore.

To

B. NAGAPPA, Esq., Bar-at-law.,

His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

SIR,

I am directed to state that the work of the District and Sessions Courts in all the 3 Divisions of the State is on the increase under all heads and the question of affording some relief to them in respect of civil work has been under the consideration of the Chief Court for some time past. Each of these Courts has to deal with Regular cases, Appeals, Execution cases and a large variety of Miscellaneous cases such as Insolvency, Land Acquisition, Election Cases, etc., on the Civil Side and Sessions cases, Criminal appeals, revisions and other miscellaneous work on the Criminal Side. A large portion of the time of these Courts is occupied in trying Sessions cases, leaving insufficient time for civil and other work. The enclosed statement shows the nature and quantity of work in each of these Courts during 1926-27. On an examination of the work of the Subordinate Judges it is found that the work in the Subordinate Judges' Courts of Bangalore, Mysore and Shimoga, is also heavy. The work of some of the 1st Class Magistrates' Courts is comparatively light and can admit of an addition of some civil work also if they are presided over by an officer of the rank of a Subordinate Judge. The file of the Small Cause Court, Bangalore, shows that some civil appeals may be taken up by the presiding Judge as is done by the

Additional

Additional Subordinate Judge at Mysore.

2. After a careful consideration of the question, the Chief Court is of opinion that a re-distribution of the civil appellate work will afford some relief to District Judges and Subordinate Judges, and give some additional work to some of the 1st Class Magistrates' Courts which they can bear. The following scheme may therefore be given a trial and the result carefully watched.

(i) The Small Cause Court Judge, Bangalore, may be invested with powers to hear such of the appeals of the Bangalore District, as may be transferred to him by or under the orders of the District Judge, Bangalore, under the proviso to Section 14 of the Civil Courts Regulation, and to enable him to do so the Judge of the Small Cause Court may be appointed as an Additional Subordinate Judge under Sections 4-A and 4-B of the Civil Courts Regulation.

(ii) The Special First Class Magistrate at Kolar may also be appointed as Additional Subordinate Judge, Bangalore Division, under Sections 4-A and 4-B of the Civil Courts Regulation with jurisdiction to hear such of the civil appeals of the Kolar District as may be transferred to him by or under the orders of the District Judge, Bangalore, under the proviso to Section 14 of the Civil Courts Regulation.

(iii) The Special First Class Magistrate, Hassan, may likewise be appointed as an Additional Subordinate Judge, Mysore Division under Sections 4-A and 4-B of the Civil Courts

Regulation

Regulation with jurisdiction to hear such of the civil appeals of the Hassan District as may be transferred to him by or under the orders of the District Judge, Mysore, under the proviso to Section 14 of the Civil Courts Regulation.

(iv) The Special First Class Magistrate, Chitaldrug, may be appointed as Additional Subordinate Judge, Shimoga Division, under Sections 4-A and 4-B of the Civil -- Courts Regulation with jurisdiction to hear such of - the civil appeals of the Chitaldrug District as may - be transferred to him by or under the orders of the - District Judge, Shimoga, under the proviso to Section 14 of the Civil Courts Regulation.

3. I am accordingly to enclose draft Notifications and to request that Government may be pleased to accord early sanction to the proposal so that the changes may come into effect from the -- 1st January 1929. I am to add that if the above proposals which imply that Subordinate Judges will have to be posted to the Courts at Chitaldrug and Hassan which are now presided over by Assistant Commissioners, are approved, suitable recommendations for transfers will then be made.

I have the honour to be,

ROUTINE NOTES.

[To be used only for notes, requisitions, etc., not intended for permanent record]

Dear Mr Subramanyam Mudaliar,

With reference to your R.O.C. No: 854 27-28 of 18.12.28, proposing the appointment of the first Munsif of Kolar, Harur and Chittur as additional Subordinate Judges under S.S. 4-A & 4-B of the Mysore Civil Courts Regn 1883 as amended by Regn VII of 1926,

I am directed to state that a doubt has arisen whether the additional Sub-Judges appointed to the Courts at Bangalore, Mysore & Shimoga could be empowered to hear appeals originating in cases as classes other than those heard by the Principal Sub-Judges Courts under S. 4 (6) of the Civil Courts Regn. The place of which every Sub-Judge Court is fixed, and the question is whether the additional Sub-Judges appointed to the Bangalore Sub-Courts, for instance, could be Court at different places in Bangalore. I am, in request, that the matter may be cleared for us

CHIEF COURT OF MYSORE,
BANGALORE.

4th February 1929.

Dear Mr. Mahadevayya,

Your D.O. No.P.3940/Cts.144-28-2 dated 28th January last requesting to be furnished with the opinion of the Chief Court as to whether the Additional Subordinate Judges proposed to be appointed to the Subordinate Judges' Courts at Bangalore, Mysore and Shimoga could be empowered to sit and hear appeals or try cases at places other than those fixed for the principa Subordinate Judges' Courts under Section 4(b) of the Civil Courts Regulation.

In reply I am desired to state as follows :-

Under Section 4(b) of the Civil Courts Regulation the place at which every such civil court shall be held, shall be fixed, and may, from time to time, be altered, by the Government of Mysore. Under Section 13 of the General Clauses Regulation the words in the singular shall include the plural and vice versa. By virtue of this section the word "place" in Section 4(b) will include "places" also and therefore under this section the Government of Mysore can fix the place or places at which every such Court shall be held. According to this view therefore Government may fix that Principal Subordinate Judge shall sit at Bangalore and the Additional Subordinate Judge shall sit at Kolar and hold their respective Courts

To make the notification more specific by indicating the place where the Additional Sub Court is to be located, I herein enclose draft notifications emobodying suitable amendments.

Yours sincerely,

To
